

Mideo M. Cruz

b.1973 Philippines

Mideo M. Cruz is an active cross disciplinary artist-organizer in Southeast Asia. He initiated the art collective - UGAT Lahi in the 90's and later as one of the prime movers of the multi media event tupada. He dubbed as a "central to the revival of performance art in Manila" as articulated by the editors of Transit Art Journal. Presently, he is preoccupied with the international artists' network new world disorder and frequently invited for his ingenious actions around the globe. He is looking forward for establishing the third world international, a community initiated international interaction. He is a recipient of the 2003 Cultural Center of the Philippines thirteen artists award.

www.mideo.tk

www.newworlddisorder.tk

"Sanctification"

Reach Outlying 2005 TIPALive
Taipei, Taiwan July. 2005

